

The Law Office of Markham T. Jackson

About Us

We are a private law firm located in Brentwood, Tennessee that is owned and operated by attorney Markham Todd Jackson. We provide a variety of legal services throughout the great state of Tennessee.

It is our mission to provide Tennesseans with effective and professional legal representation on a personal level. We aim to break the mold of today's run-of-the-mill law firm by representing our clients with an emphasis on the human element while maintaining the professionalism and charm of the traditional southern law practice.

You, your family, and your case are important enough to get help. You wouldn't field a football team without a head coach, so don't make that mistake with your case. Call our office today for a free case consultation and let us see what we can do for you. Our clients are our family and in this law office, family comes first.
